THE GREAT DIVIDE:

A Narrative of Travels in the Upper Yellowstone in the Summer of 1874. By the EARL OF DUNRAVEN.

With numerous striking full-page Illustrations, by VALENTINE W. BROMLEY.

"Under the title of the 'Great Divide,' the Earl of Dunraven tells a pleasant tale of an excursion, half as hunter, half as tourist, to the region first made known a year or two ago to the world as the marvelous country of the Yellowstone. The reader will find in Lord Dunraven the most genial and unaffected of guides."—Graphic.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Portrait, 9s.

JOSEPH AND HIS BRETHREN:

A Dramatic Poem.

By CHARLES WELLS.

With Vignette Portrait and an Introductory Essay by ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.

"The author of 'Joseph and his Brethren' will some day have to be acknowledged among the memorable men of the second great period in our poetry. . . . There are lines even in the overture of his poem which might, it seems to me, more naturally be mistaken even by an expert in verse for the work of the young Shakespeare, than any to be gathered elsewhere in the fields of English poetry."—A. C. SWINBURNE.

Small 8vo, Roxburgh binding, price 10s. 6d.

THE FIRST EDITION OF SHAKESPEARE, 1623.

An exact reproduction of the rare original, in reduced facsimile, by a photographic process.

With an Introduction by J. O. HALLIWELL PHILLIPS, Esq.

"To Messrs. Chatto and Windus belongs the merit of having done more to facilitate the critical study of the text of our great dramatist than all the Shakespeare clubs and societies put together. A complete facsimile of the celebrated first folio edition of 1623 for half-a-guinea is at once a miracle of cheapness and enterprise. Being in a reduced form, the type is necessarily rather diminutive, but it is as distinct as in a genuine copy of the original, and will be found to be as useful and far more handy to the student than the latter."—Athenaeum.

Crown 8vo, cloth extra gilt, 7s. 6d.

HAYDON'S CORRESPONDENCE and TABLE-TALK.

WITH A MEMOIR BY HIS SON,

And 23 Illustrations.

"The volumes are among the most interesting produced or likely to be produced by the present season."—Examiner.

"One of the most moving histories that has been published in modern days. Haydon's case has never before been fairly laid before the public; the man has never been shown as he was in truth, through the medium of his correspondence, his diaries, sayings, and actions. Charming correspondence, and still more charming table-talk."—Morning Post.

"Here we have a full-length portrait of a most remarkable man. . . . His son has done the work well—is clear and discriminating on the whole, and writes with ease and vigour. . . . Over and above the interest that must be felt in Haydon himself, the letters afford us the opportunity of studying closely many of the greatest men and women of the time. . . . We do not hesitate to say that these letters and table-talk form a most valuable contribution to the history of art and literature in the past generation. The editor has selected and arranged them with uncommon judgment, adding many notes that contain ana and anecdote. Every page has thus its point of interest. . . . The book will no doubt have a wide audience, as it well deserves."—Nonconformist.

MR. SWINBURNE'S NEW POEM.

SECOND EDITION. Crown 8vo, cloth extra, price 6s.

ERECHTHEUS.

By ALGERNON CHARLES SWINBURNE.

"Matured thought and ripened power are brought to the task of re-clothing old fables. . . . Our extracts, copious as they are, fail to convey an idea of the sustained strength and beauty of the entire work, which we are inclined to rank as Mr. Swinburne's masterpiece."—Athenaeum.

"The harmony of all the parts is perfect. . . . Our 'Erechtheus' is as living to us now as it would have been to an Athenian. . . . To such altitudes, rarely scaled by the first of poets in the modern age, has he ascended. . . . 'Erechtheus' is in truth a masterpiece. . . . A poem which appeals to men of all nations and of all times."—Academy.

"A ripper, larger, and nobler companion piece to 'Atalanta.' . . . Before this we had no whole work from his hand where the full height of his energy went along with full mastery of his workmanship. We have such an one in 'Erechtheus.'"—Pall Mall Gazette.

W. S. GILBERT.—Crown 8vo, cloth extra, 9s.

ORIGINAL PLAYS BY W. S. Gilbert.

"Mr. Lamont has taken a share distinctively his own in the work of Arctic discovery, and the value of his labours as an amateur explorer is to be attributed to the systematic manner in which he pursued his investigations, no less than to his scientific qualifications for the task. The handsome volume is full of valuable and interesting information to the sportsman and naturalist; it would be difficult to say which of the two will enjoy it most."—Scotsman.

In 1 vol. crown 8vo, cloth extra, with Portrait and Facsimiles, 12s. 6d.

THE FINAL RELIQUES OF FATHER PROUT.

"It is well that the present long-delayed volume should remind a younger generation of his fame. . . . The charming letters from Paris, Florence, and Rome. . . . are the most perfect specimens of what a foreign correspondence ought to be."—Academy.

"Sparkles all over and is full of interest. Mahony, like Sydney Smith, could write on no subject without being brilliant and witty. . . . A biographical sketch is prefixed."—Brick Quarterly Review.

Introduction, by CAMILLE BARRE.

"A book of great though rather a chastely sort of interest, Henri Sanson's reminiscences have a merit of their own, and certainly present a side of the criminal history of France for which we should vainly seek a parallel here, but which is something much above a mere chapter of horrors."—Graphic.

FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE DEATH OF ALEXANDER THE GREAT.

By the Rev. GEORGE W. COX, M.A., Author of "The Aryan Mythology," &c.

"We envy those schoolboys and undergraduates who will make their first acquaintance with Greek History through Mr. Cox's admirable volume. It ought to supersede all the popular Histories of Greece which have gone before it."—THE HOUR.

"The appearance of this work is an event of some importance in the history of educational books. When a man proposes to write a History of Greece, even a school history, he proposes a great matter.....The book is worthy, in every way, of the Author's reputation.....It is altogether a most interesting and valuable book."—EDUCATIONAL TIMES.

"Mr. Cox's history has many claims on our attention. Its style is extremely spirited, and often highly eloquent and picturesque; and it is the only Greek history in our language written in a style to attract and impress the young imagination and memory."—ENGLISH CHURCHMAN.

TO THE

ETHNOLOGISTS, ARCHAEOLOGISTS,

AND

PHILOLOGISTS of AMERICA.

At the 24th Meeting of the AMERICAN ASSOCIATION for the ADVANCEMENT of SCIENCE, held August last, at Detroit, a PERMANENT SUBSECTION of ANTHROPOLOGY was organised to go into effect at the Buffalo Meeting of the Association in August, 1876. The Hon. L. H. MORGAN, of Rochester, was chosen chairman of the Subsection for the Buffalo Meeting, and a committee was appointed to invite the co-operation of all interested in either of the numerous departments of Anthropology, in order that the rapidly increasing interest and importance of the subject may be treated, in this country, with the breadth of thought which is now demanded. For this purpose it is hoped that Philology, as well as the more popular departments of Anthropology, will be represented at the forthcoming meeting, and that the Subsection will more nearly correspond to that of the British Association, which annually gives so many important papers to the world.

It is desirable that students of Ethnology should attend the meetings of the Association, and contribute papers, for, notwithstanding the variety and richness of the materials for this science in America, it cannot be said that it has become fairly established among us. It is due from American scholarship that a complete exposition should be made of the arts, inventions, institutions, usages and customs, ethnical relations and religious beliefs of the early American people.

In relation to a better understanding of North American Archaeology, very much will be gained by an annual meeting of investigators from all parts of the country to compare notes.
 In no other department is the necessity of direct comparisons of field notes and articles obtained in various parts of the country so important as in Archaeology. Any worker, however well read in the labours of others, is necessarily biased by his own discoveries, until he has the means of comparison and discussion with those working in the same way in other localities. This truth was so evident at recent meetings of the Association, that it leads the committee to mention it as an inducement for all workers to come forward with their papers and their specimens, and for each to give his share of information for the benefit of the whole.

It is particularly requested that all who can will take to the meeting not only such diagrams and illustrations as will elucidate their papers, but specimens as well. Arrangements will be made with the Local Committee to provide a safe place for a museum during the meeting, similar to those furnished by the British Association.

The committee is authorised to state that the citizens of Buffalo, in anticipation of a very large meeting, will do everything in their power to provide means of entertainment and transportation, at the lowest possible rates, for parties attending the meeting.

The necessary blanks for application for membership will be furnished by the Permanent Secretary of the Association, upon request, and the regular circular, and that of the Local Committee, relating to the Buffalo Meeting, will also be forwarded to applicants. Early replies to this circular, addressed to the Secretary, are requested, and the expressed intention of reading papers or exhibiting specimens will be answered by the transmission of the proper blanks for the entry of titles, which the rules of the Association require shall be in the hands of the Permanent Secretary before the date of the meeting.

In conclusion, the committee extend a cordial invitation to all interested, who are not now members, to become members of the Association and to take part in this newly organised Subsection of Anthropology.

RICHARD BENTLEY & SON'S NEW WORKS.

ENGLAND: Literary and Social, from a German Point of View. By JULIUS RODENBERG. In 8vo, 14s.

"A very excellent book on England, alike instructive and amusing, has left the German press, by Julius Rodenberg. It is a worthy sequel to the various similar publications by which the author has endeavoured to make his countrymen know and love England. Literary essays of uncommon merit are relieved in these twining pages by historical sketches, and descriptions of men and scenery. The book is so full of valuable matter, and so well written withal, that it is certain to be an interesting addition to English literature."—The Times.

The DEAD CITIES OF THE ZUYDER ZEE. From the French of HENRI HAVARD, by ANNIE WOOD. In 8vo, with 10 Illustrations, 14s.

"A fresh and charming work. M. Havard has discovered a true terra incognita in the centre of Europe, and has caught, just as it was disappearing, a phase of life highly picturesque, and pleasant for the artist's eye. M. Havard has gone among the sleepy cities of the Zuyder Zee with a loving eye. He is a keen and thoughtful observer, and it is apparent on every page of his bright, sparkling narrative, that he really likes the people and their ancient ways, and the consequence is that he inspires his readers with the same feeling."—Observer.

TEN YEARS OF MY LIFE. By the Princess FELIX SALM-SALM. In 2 vols. crown 8vo, with a Portrait of the Princess, 21s.

"The Princess Felix Salm-Salm is one of those persons who cannot be accused of mistaking their vocation when they take to writing their personal memoirs. Many of the Princess's recollections are really valuable as contributions to history, while all her experiences and adventures are told so as to make them very agreeable reading."—Saturday Review.

"A copious and interesting narrative of facts."—The World.
"A book of a more interesting or entertaining character has seldom come into our hands."—Standard.

"MANN" and MANNERS at the COURT OF FLORENCE; 1740-1788. Founded on the Letters of Sir Horace Mann to Horace Walpole. By Dr. DOUGLAS, F.R.S., Author of the "Lives of the Queens of England of the House of Hanover," "Table Traits and something on Them," &c. In 2 vols. 8vo, 30s.

"We have to thank Dr. Doran for having, in these two handsome volumes, left us all that is choice in the way of anecdote, or valuable in the way of information."—The World.
"Sir Horace Mann's letters are delightful reading. They sparkle with anecdote and entertaining court gossip, contain numerous life-like portraits of celebrated persons, and from beginning to end of the 900 pages to which they extend, have hardly a single dull or uninteresting one."—Standard.

TERESINA IN AMERICA. By Therese YELVERTON, Viscountess AVONMORE, Author of "Teresina Peregrina." In 2 vols. crown 8vo, 21s.
"The author possesses the pen of a ready writer, and this she uses with unflinching liveliness."—Evening Standard.
"Readers of Teresina's books will not need to be told that these volumes are throughout lively and entertaining. Teresina has travelled twenty thousand miles through the most important districts of America, and a glance at her table of contents is alone sufficient to show that she has done the country pretty thoroughly. Some people appear destined to meet with romantic adventures, and of these Teresina's tour was rich to abundance."—Pall Mall Gazette.

Altogether it may be described as a romance of the kind called rattling, written by one who, to a considerable knowledge of the world adds a fair amount of culture."—The World.
"Intensely dramatic scenes are accomplished in an unusually masterly manner."—Sporting and Dramatic News.
